LABOR UNIONS ARE FOR PEACE MOVE

LONDON, Aug. 15.—At a joint meeting last night of the executive committee of the National Labor party and the parliamentary committee of the Trades Union congress, the attitude of Arthur Henderson, secretary of the Labor party, who resigned Saturday as a member of the British war cabinet, with regard to the Socialist conference in Stockholm, was discussed. The meeting appointed delegates, including Mr. Henderson, to the Stockholm conference and resolved to ask the government to withdraw its order prohibiting the issuance of passports to Stockholm delegates.

The meeting of the executive committee of the Labor party and the parliamentary committee was held in the house of commons. George Nicoll Barnes, who succeeded Mr. Henderson in the war cabinet, and all the Labor members of the cabinet attended. Mr. Henderson, James Ramsay MacDonald and Philip Snowden and most of the Labor members of parliament also were present.

No communication was issued to the press, but it is understood no change in the situation resulted and the position of the Labor members of the government was not discussed, although it is known that a pacifist section, headed by Mr. MacDonald, is trying to bring pressure to force the Labor ministers to resign. Apparently, however, nothing will be decided pending the adjourned meeting of the National Labor conference next Tuesday.

WILLARD MEN GO TO OFFICERS' CAMP

WILLARD, Aug. 14.—Robert D. Dalton of this city, whose appointment as second lieutenant in the engineers' training camp of the officers' reserve corps at Fort Leavenworth is announced, is the second Willard boy to be honored by an appointment to aid the country in the war against Germany. The other appointee is James O. White, who was commissioned yesterday as second lieutenant in the third company, officers' reserve corps, at San Francisco.

Lieutenant Dalton is 29 years of age and a graduate of the University of Utah. He was graduated in 1910 and for two years thereafter was in the employ of the government as a surveyor in California. Later he was at the head of the weather bureau in St. Louis for two years. He is considered an expert engineer.

Lieutenant Dalton also is a member of the Phi Delta Theta fraternity. He applied for entry to the training camp at St. Louis, but is delighted over his appointment, despite the fact that he is to be sent to Fort Leavenworth.

DOCTORS DISTURBED OVER FEES TO BE ALLOWED

SALT LAKE, Aug. 15.—The attempt of the state industrial commission to fix a schedule of fees for physicians treating persons injured who come under the workmen's compensation act has resulted in warfare between the board and the doctors of the state. The physicians claim that the industrial commission is so arbitrary in the matter that it would dictate to the physicians just how much a physician, corporation, an insurance company or the state would have to pay for treatment of injured persons, no matter what the injury or the length of time required to cure. The industrial commission takes the position that after the maximum physician's charge is paid any further treatment must be paid by the person so treated.

The storm over the alleged arbitrary schedule of fees broke at a meeting held at the capitol between thirty-five Salt Lake physicians and Commissioners Harrison Jenkins and Preston D. Thatcher. The physicians present at the meeting attacked the scheme of the state industrial commission with such vigor that Mr. Jenkins, who is in charge of the insurance department, left the meeting and took with him Mr. Thatcher. No further overtures have been made by either the physicians or the industrial commission for further hearings.

State's Fee Schedule

At one stage of the argument between the state industrial commission and the physicians Mr. Jenkins, it is claimed, asserted that if the physicians of the state did not subscribe to the schedule of fees which the industrial commission placed in operation the commission would hire physicians of its own to attend those who are injured in the course of their employment. The commission, through Mr. Jenkins, it is said, made it known that only certain amounts of money would be allowed for certain operations and that only $1 should be charged for day calls and but $2 for night calls.

He also is alleged to have said that $30 or $35 would be a sufficiently high fee for the less dangerous major operations.

BUSINESS FIRMS WANT COAL RELIEF

SALT LAKE, Aug. 15.—A petition signed by forty business firms of the city, with Z. C. M. I. at the head of the list, urging the city commission to petition the public utilities commission for relief from the coal situation came before the commission at last night's meeting.

Because of the fact that a petition such as urged had already been filed with the public utilities commission by the city law department, the petition to the city commission was ordered received and filed. The petition contained an offer of specific information as to evidence of responsibility for the coal shortage if desired for the making of a case before the public utilities commission.

The commission referred to the committee of the whole last night a recommendation from the city health commissioner that raises from $1500 to $1800 be accorded seven positions in the city health department.

NARROW ESCAPES AT HOTEL BLAZE

SALT LAKE, Aug. 15.—Several guests were more or less seriously burned and all were compelled to flee in their night clothes when the Ferber hotel, in the Deep Creek section, burned to the ground early Monday morning. The fire, which is believed to have been of incendiary origin, broke out about 2 o'clock in the morning. The alarm was sounded by a belated miner returning to the town and it was with difficulty that the guests were saved.

The hotel was built at a cost of $10,000 and the furnishings were valued at about $5000. A Salt Lake furniture house had a mortgage on the furniture and an investigation is being conducted into the origin of the fire. It was with difficulty that the miners and the townspeople prevented the flames from spreading to adjoining buildings. As the town is without water supply and no fire department has been organized, the old bucket brigade was called into play to save adjoining property.

More than a dozen men escaped from the burning building without saving their clothing and were compelled to wait until the stores opened in the morning in order to get overalls and jumpers. Ferber is located just over the Utah line in Nevada.

AMERICANS MUST SERVE GERMANS

COPENHAGEN, Aug. 14.—An American of German birth who was permitted to leave Germany recently, says that the military authorities there are commencing to take American citizens long resident in Germany for military service on the grounds that they have forfeited their American citizenship and now are denationalized. Even native-born Americans, he said, have in some instances been put into the army, but the military duty usually applied to naturalized citizens of German birth.

GERMAN PLOT IS CLEVERLY NIPPED

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 15.—Lawrence DeLacy, an employee of "The Leader," a weekly publication, and D. J. Harnedy, proprietor of a shoe store, were arrested here late yesterday as leaders in an alleged plot to spirit Franz Bopp, former German consul general here, and Eckhard von Schack, vice consul, from the detention camp at Angel Island to a point in Mexico.

The men were trapped as the result of a counter-plot directed by the government. Last Friday Patrick J. Farrally, employed here in the immigration service, was ostensibly arrested on a complaint charging conspiracy in the planned escape of Bopp and von Schack. This complaint was given out for publication after Farrally was taken into custody, but was never filed. United States District Attorney Preston, in furtherance of his government scheme, brought Farrally before United States Commissioner Francis Krull in order that his bonds might be arranged.

Farrally was told to obtain sureties, and have them appear today to sign the bonds. When the case was called M. A. Greely and H. Warfield appeared and announced their willingness to go on Farrally's "bonds."

When asked the name of the parties who interested themselves in Farrally's case, the men mentioned DeLacy and Harnedy. The government previously received information from Farrally that he had received an incriminating letter from Harnedy, on June 29, and on August 7 received $100 from DeLacy, presumably, the government authorities stated, for his efforts to liberate Bopp and von Schack. Greely and Warfield were then advised by Preston that the "arrest" of Farrally was a scheme and effected by the government in order to bring the real leaders in the Bopp plot to light. He also declared Farrally was not under arrest at any time; that he submitted to detention in the county jail here in order that the government's plan might be furthered; that the complaint against him was a trap and that as a consequence no bonds were necessary.

Subsequently the government authorities discovered, so Preston declares, that the whole matter of arranging Farrally's "bonds" was a scheme and decided upon by Greely, Warfield, DeLacy and Harnedy. The office of Daniel O'Connell, a local attorney who was arrested by government agents a few days ago for plotting to obstruct the selective draft, O'Connell is to come before Commissioner Krull today for his preliminary hearing.

DeLacy and Harnedy whose bonds were set at $10,000 each, will also come before the commissioner in order that a date may be set for their hearing.

Following the arrest of DeLacy and Harnedy, Farrally was released and returned to his home. He will be the principal witness against the men when they are put on trial. The arrested men would make no statement.

Preston characterized Farrally as "the gamiest little Irishman I ever saw" and upon releasing him thanked him cordially for the part he took in the government's scheme to break up the alleged plot.

DEMENTED RANCHER SENT TO ASYLUM

POCATELLO, Idaho, Aug. 14.—Andrew Anderson, a well-known rancher residing near Henry, who terrorized the neighborhood a few days ago by threatening to destroy the property and take the lives of a number of residents of the vicinity, was committed to the Blackfoot asylum yesterday by Probate Judge William A. Hyde.

It appears that Anderson suddenly and uncontrollably lost his mind, and after killing his stock and poultry, he wandered from home and committed a number of other depredations before he was apprehended by a deputy sheriff sent from this city.

ECONOMY WITH AN AUTO.

Something happened to the steering and his machine dashed across a crowded sidewalk and into a jeweler's store window. It cost him heavily to settle everything and after that he didn't drive his car. Next he hired a chauffeur to take him down town. Soon some trouble developed. He hailed the driver:

"What's the matter?"

"Steering gear gone wrong, sir! What shall I do?"

"Drive into the cheapest thing you see!"—Argonaut.
